of Adolphustown

Killed in South Africa Nov 2, 1900 at a fight at Witkop. Shot by Boers, while rescuing Major Saunders

Belonged to Canadian Mounted Rifles, & behaved with great gallantry in the action of Nov 2nd. Major Saunders wounded, & Chalmers went to his aid. Saunders implored him to leave, but was refused, & the gallant Chalmers was killed.

Graduate of R. M. C., Kingston, & a veteran of the North West Rebellion. When the Montreal Garrison Artillery left for the North West in April, 1885, Capt. Chalmers was attached to the corps as a lieut. to No. 4 Battery, of which Lt. Col. Cole, then Capt. Cole, was in command. Throughout the whole of the campaign he & Col. Cole shared the same tent. On his return he received an appointment as officer in the North West Mounted Police, with which organization he was connected for 8 yrs. when he retired, & was appointed government surveyor for the Territories. He was busy building a road from Edmonton to the Peace river when the Can. Mounted Rifles were raised. He volunteered & was appointed an officer.

Born in Adolphustown, unmarried, & of a well known & much respected family, who have been long resident in the county. They have been noted for uprightness, intelligence & integrity. Universal sympathy to his widowed mother, & brothers & sisters, of whom are Mr. J. Frank Chalmers, postmaster of Adolphustown, & ex-Reeve of the township. Miss Grace Chalmers, nurse-in-training, General Hospital, Kingston, & another
